WESTON MSS.

Respected Friend
Ann Warren Weston

For some time I have been trying to ascertain where the remaining engraving of the fine Scene on the coast of Africa, which could be found must be got and kept for exhibition in Worcester. I understood from the Miss Chases that Mrs Chapman had it in her charge, and have made enquiries at the Anti Slavery Office in Boston, but as yet have not been able to find it — James Buffum told me the other day that he thought by addressing thee that I might learn where it was, as Mrs Chapman left her things in thy charge. If thou has it or knows where it is. Thou will confer a favor on me by sending it to the Anti Slavery Office in Boston, and advising me of it through the post Office. Please direct to Worcester and oblige thine very
